

Lawrence L. Lambert, 65, passed away at home in Palm Springs, CA, on September 12, 2011.

Larry was born on April 11, 1946, in Kankakee, IL. He served in the Army and was stationed in Germany from December 1965 to December 1967. Several years later, Larry returned to college and graduated from Bradley University in Peoria, IL.

Larry put his degree in International Marketing to good use at several high-tech computer software companies, but his true passion was interior design. He used his sharp eye and refined sense of style to decorate several celebrity homes, as well as numerous private residences and even an office suite.

Larry leaves behind his devoted partner of 33 years, Rod Hagan. Larry is also survived by his parents, August (Gus) Lambert and Verletta (Arlene) of Bradley, IL, his brother, Randy, of Winter Haven, FL, his sister, Kathy Wurbel, of Las Vegas, NV and a son, Adam Wade Glomski .

A memorial mass will be said at St. Joseph's in Bradley, IL, on Saturday, September 24 at 9:30AM. To sign view and sign this guest book, please visit mydesert.com/obituaries.
